

Received 24th January 2024 by email

We have not made any strategic progress/clear decisions about this development project.

The Diocese does remain committed to the development of our Glebe land, and I will undertake to let you know the results of our on-going deliberations when I can.