

Youth Offer and Community Profiling
Town and Parish Councils

Purpose

This questionnaire aims to help Shropshire Council better understand the needs of young people (aged 11-19) across your community, the current level of Youth Provision (the Youth Offer) and how your council support or link into wider community profiling and youth development efforts at a local or council level.

What is a Youth Offer?

The Youth Offer refers to a range of activities, services, support and safe spaces available to young people in a community. This may include Youth Clubs, Sports and Leisure activities, wellbeing and mental health support, mentoring, volunteering opportunities and involvement with local decision making.

Please do your best to provide any information you have available. Your input will be really valuable in understanding the youth offer in Shropshire.
